WILD PARLIAMENT ROW OVER JAILED

Denouncing Forced Feeding of Women, M. P. Shakes His Fist in Premier's Face.

LONDON, June 26.-Intense bitterness has been engendered in England by the foreible feeding of the imprisoned suffragettes who declared a hunger strike while in jail. This was reflected in an extraordinary scene this afternoon in the House of Commons when George Lansbury, a Socialist member, denounced Premier Asquith and the Government in such vitriolic terms that he was ordered to leave the House by the Apeaker, who threatened to have him ejected unless he went out voluntarily. Timothy Healy, the Nationalist, had appealed to Premier Asquith to release the women, and the Premier replied that they could leave prison this afternoon on giving an undertaking not to repeat their affense. Mr. Lansbury immediately projected himself at the Treasury bench shaking his fist in the faces of Premier Asquith and the other Ministers. With his face only a few inches from that of Mr. Asquith Mr. Lansbury shouted:

'You're beneath contempt. You know the women cannot give such an undertaking. It is dishonorable to ask them to do so. Talk of Russian atrocities; why you will go down to history as the torsiters and murderers of innocent wonen. You ought to be driven out of

The Speaker, however, finally secured quiet and ordered Mr. Lansbury to

"I am not going out while these contemptible things are torturing and murtemptible things are torturing and mur-dering women."

He yelled this out in a loud voice and appeared to be much overwrought but when the Speaker warned him that be would be forcibly thrown out unless he went of his own accord the Labor members gathered about their colleague and induced him to quit.

AGED PUBLISHER FIGHTS TO PROVE HE'S COMPETENT.

The proceedings to have Robert M Williamson, who was well known in Wall street a generation ago as a publisher of stock quotations, declared incompetent were again in the Brooklyn Supreme Court to-day, when counsel for the old man filed an answer to the petition of John N. Williamson, a sephew.

In the answer it is denied the septuagenarian was supplied with thirty or forty glasses of whiskey a day by Florence Harding, with whom he was living at No. 126 West One Hundredth street, Manhattan. It is likewise de-nied he has given her $70,000 worth of stocks and bonds.

The first proceedings, brought last

The first proceedings, brought last October in the Queens County Court, Long Island City, named Marie H. Williamsen, the alleged incompetent's wife, as petitioner. Similar allegations about the thirty and forty drinks of whiskey a day were made by Mrs. Williamsen. It was also stated in her petition that Williamsen was incapable of managing his affairs, because he was kept in a state of habitual drunk-enness by Florence Harding, who, she charged, had lived with him as his wife for the last five years. Florence Harding, it was stated, was employed Harding, it was stated, was employed as a chambermaid in a New York hotel when Williamson met her.

No issue was completed in the proceedings brought by the wife, and the petition now before the court names John N. Williamson as petitioner.

Nurses' Shoe for Women

An extremely helpful shoe combining practical, remedial principles that benefit the arch structure. Doctors recommend it for the prevention, relief and correction of weak arch, in all its stages, and "flat-foot."

The heel of this shoe is furnished with rubber top lift, making it springy and noiseless. To insure accurate fitting, the heel comes in varying elevations to meet individual needs.

Coward Arch Support Shoe and CowardBxtensionites!, have been made by James S. Coward, in his Custom Dept. for over 30 years.
